

HECKLER VS. PREACHER

What preacher enjoys being heckled during his sermon? I've had my fair share of them. One time a fellow came up front to argue with me about the number 666 DURING A REVELATION SEMINAR! He actually got out of his seat, came up to the front and argued.

Another time, some skateboarders started skating on the roof of the church while I was inside presenting a seminar! This made a terrible ruckus. Not only did it sound like the church was being demolished, but an intense battle raged between the deacons acting as security and the hoodlums who were trying to film their buddies skating off the extremely high roof.

Dealing with hecklers is something a preacher puts up with every once in a while. But think of Jesus and His ministry life; The Bible says he dealt with this on a daily basis. The hecklers Jesus dealt with were not just trying to make a scene or get a little attention; they were actually trying to KILL Him!

How did Jesus handle this? How did he get out of the constant traps being set for him? More importantly, how can he get me out of a the foolproof trap that the devil has set for all mankind?
